Globelink Colombo - Battle of the Sea Event

Globelink Colombo hosted a Battle of the Sea event on 2nd June 2018 at the Sri Lanka Karting Circuit and invited key customers and fellow forwarders to join in a day of fun and interactive activities.

To start the action for the day, the participants had a go at air rifle shooting which was a good opportunity to unleash their marksmanship and competitive spirit!

The next activity lined up after an intense session of firing was a Globelink themed trivia game. Prior to the quiz, participants were given some time to explore the website of Globelink Colombo and learn more about the company and its services in a fun and interactive way.

The highly anticipated finale of the day's challenge was kart racing in the largest karting circuit in Bandaragama. Participants who took part in the friendly competition had an exciting and enthralling race, which also had the audiences on the edge of their seats!

With the crowning of the winners, the Battle of the Sea Event was drawn to a successful end.

CWT GlobeLink Colombo was established in 2001 and marked the opening of the 10th office in the GlobeLink network. During this short period of time, the company has emerged as a leading consolidator in Sri Lanka and is gaining popularity in the Indian subcontinent.

Lying in a strategic location near major Indian Ocean sea lane, Sri Lanka possesses the essential locational advantage needed for it to develop into a key logistics hub in South Asia. With its rapid development and fast-growing economy, Colombo has been identified as a potential trade link for African/Indian subcontinent.

CWT GlobeLink Colombo is propelled by a strong team of more than 80 professionals with extensive industry knowledge and experience across the multimodal transport arena. Our business covers many sectors in micro/macro industries and focuses on identifying niche market concepts in order to deliver value added freight solutions to customers.
